Philip Lique — About

Philip Lique (b. 1983, New Haven, CT) lives and works in Miami, Florida. Working across sculpture, installation, printmaking, and independent publishing, his practice blends craft-based processes with public engagement and social critique. Selected solo exhibitions include All Paths Lead Home (2024) at Emerson Dorsch, Living and Made (2023) at The Bass Museum, and Parlor Tricks for Summoning the Devil (2021) at MAD Arts. His work is included in the collections of the Museum of Fine Arts Boston, NewYork-Presbyterian Hospital, and Morgan Stanley, among others.
